2. Why was Abram not _____ about rescuing his nephew? Gen. 13:14-15; 14:14
3. Why doesn't Abram take any war _____ for himself? Gen. 14:22-23
4. How does he show fairness to those in his _____? Genesis 14:24
5. How does Jesus arrive when He _____ for vengeance? Rev. 19:11-16

When the defiance of God's law is almost universal, when his people are pressed in affliction by their fellow men, God will interpose. Then will the voice be heard from the graves of martyrs, represented by the souls that John saw slain for the Word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ, which they held,—then the prayer will ascend from every true child of God: “It is time for thee, Lord, to work: for they have made void thy law.” The fervent prayers of his people will be answered; for God loves to have his people seek him with all the heart, and depend upon him as their deliverer. He will be sought unto to do these things for his people, and he will arise as their protector and avenger. “Shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him?”
